Dear Readers,

My soon-to-be-released novel, Everglades, marks the beginning of what I hope will be a long and fruitful career as an author. An aquatic biologist by profession, I try to blend my knowledge of the environment and outdoors with my PG-13 tales of romance with suspenseful elements.

Available in late May 2012, Everglades will take you on a rip-roaring tour through the famous River of Grass. Ride along on the front of a wingless aircraft with nature photographer Kayli Heddon and her hunky airboat guide Skye Landers, as they take you on an adventure you will never forget. Alligators, snakes, and drug dealers, oh my!

Then in November 2012, Desert Breeze will release my second love story, Catch of the Day. Tag along with a red-headed spitfire named Cody Ryan and her tournament partner, Special Ops Coast Guard Captain Gage Connor, as they compete in a wild and crazy fishing tournament in the Doc-Hollywood-esque town of Loon, Alabama.

Ever leap a beaver dam in a bass boat? You will in Catch of the Day, and the feat actually happened in a real live fishing tournament as relayed to me by my technical advisor and Bassmaster professional angler, Jeff Holland.

Come share my books with me, and when you've finished, drop me a line and let me know what you think.

Best always,

Petie
