

Florida Lake Management Society Fall Workshop

Hosted by

Florida Lake Management Society
Southwest Chapter
&
Pinellas County Watershed Management

Brooker Creek Preserve
Environmental Education Center
October 25, 2016

- 10:00 AM Welcome and Introductions
Ron Hart, President, Florida Lake Management Society
Robert Burnes, Pinellas County Watershed Management
- 10:10 AM “The Importance of Hydrology to Lake Management: It’s not just nutrients” - Dave Tomasko, Environmental Science Associates (ESA)
- 10:40 AM “The Proper use of Polymers in the Aquatic Environment” - Eddie Snell, Applied Polymer Systems
- 11:10 AM “The Lake Apopka Nutrient Reduction Facility and 7 Years of Lessons Learned”- Ron Hart, Lake County Water Authority
- 11:40 AM Lunch Break Sponsored by Aquatic Systems, Inc.
- 12:20 PM FLMS Updates, Maryann Krisovitch, Florida Lake Management Society
- 12:30 PM “Evaluating Internal Nutrient Loading through Flux Measurements and Empirical Modeling” - Mary Szafraniec, AMEC Foster Wheeler
- 1:00 PM “Coastal Dune Lakes of Walton County” – Tony Janicki, Janicki Environmental
- 1:30 PM “Mapping our Monitoring – The Water-CAT Project”– Jan Allyn, USF Water Institute
- 2:00 PM “Seeing Blind Spots: The messages you don’t think you’re sending” – John McGee, Hillsborough County
- 2:30 PM Roundtable Discussion & Wrap Up
Ron Hart, President, Florida Lake Management Society

R.V.S.P. by October 23 to flmshome@aol.com

Free for current FLMS Members, $20 for non-members, payable at the door. Lunch is included.

Sponsored by:

