

LAKE VEGETATION INDEX SURVEY RESULTS FOR FLORIDA DEP REFERENCE LAKES

DEP initiated a reference lake sampling program in 2016 to evaluate the water quality and plant community conditions of minimally disturbed lakes within as many lake regions as possible across Florida. Results from 2016-2019 show that the reference lake set has a wide range of Lake Vegetation Index scores, with lower scores in the South region than the North region.