

Title: A practical guide to the remote in-situ monitoring of water quality parameters.

Summary: This workshop is targeted at researchers interested in developing or expanding their real-time water quality data collection capabilities. It will cover topics such as sonde and sensor selection (i.e. single- vs multi-parameter sondes), sonde deployment considerations, sensor maintenance and, data acquisition and handling.

Daniel A. Marchio

Environmental Scientist II

Lake and River Ecosystems - Applied Sciences Bureau

614.282.9908 (cell, preferred) 561.682.6726 (office)

dmarchio@sfwmd.gov